

Coach Code of Conduct

The following code refers to the behaviours expected of Coaches at Kingsley Westside FC Juniors
Any issues in relation to this code can be addressed to juniorpresident@kingsleywestsidefc.com

-  Remember that young people participate for pleasure, and winning is only part of the fun and by no means the only measure of success
-  Never ridicule or yell at a young player for making a mistake or not winning
-  Be reasonable in your demands on players time, energy and enthusiasm
-  Operate within the rules and spirit of your sport and teach your players to do the same

-  Ensure that the time players spend with you is a positive experience.
All young players are deserving of equal attention and opportunities
-  Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the age and ability of all players
-  Display emotional control, respect and professionalism to all involved with the sport.
This includes opponents, coaches, officials, administrators, the media, parents and spectators. Encourage players to do the same
-  Show concern and caution towards sick and injured players.
Follow the advice of a physician when determining whether an injured player is ready to recommence training or competition
-  Obtain appropriate qualifications and keep up to date with the latest coaching practices and the principles of growth and development of young people
-  Any physical contact with a young person should be appropriate to the situation and necessary for the players skill development
-  Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person and embrace differences in the areas of religion, gender, ability and cultural backgrounds
